

Kittley Hart

I am an open-minded writer who enjoys networking and socializing. My first book was independently published. I currently have a contract with a publishing company for my next book.

I also have lots of skills and knowledge that comes with running social media platforms after having to promote my books on my own.

Professional Experience :

Scale Operator ~ 2021-2024

Flagler Cooperative, Flagler CO

I greeted customers at the door and helped them with anything they needed. I weighed trucks and filled out the needed paperwork. I also took grain samples during harvest, ran them through the machines, and filled out the desired paperwork.

I cleaned around the office during slow days. I also mowed and painted the office.

Professional Experience :

Intern ~ December 2024 - February 2025

Legacy Book Publishing, Winter Park FL

I read manuscripts and past projects to get a feeling of how everything works. I helped design covers and met with authors to discuss their books.

I also posted promotional content on their instagram.

Projects:

Toxic Roses

YA romance about mental health
Available on Amazon.com

Back from the Dead

Short story on Adelaide Literary Magazine No.72

Tales of Witches & Flowers

Fantasy series (work in progress)
